

Ways to Keep Connected Remotely

	Junior Bake Off – Bake along with a friend. Try a microwavable mug cake. 	Host a sing along – Choose a song that you can sing to or with friends. 	Card writing or letter writing – Write a special message and post.
Eat lunch with a friend remotely – Why not make a meal to enjoy. 	Play Chess – Play a game of this with a board grid reference to help. 	Scavenger hunts – Can you find.... 	Use the site Pogo to play games like monopoly on line.
Have a Zoom party – Plan a party and enjoy music and food with friends. 	Task Masters challenge – Use challenge cards to see who can... 	Movie Night using Netflix Party – You can synchronize video playback with your child’s friends and add group chat so kids can "talk" during the movie. 	Kahoot Quiz Night – Create a quiz for friends and take turn to be the quiz master.

Play UNO online – Other card games can also be played.

Do a workout or other exercise together – You can use the clock to do a HIIT style or music to do a Yoga style,

Make craft together – Pasta necklace, Kites or Bird feeder.

Let's chat – Notice one thing that has gone well or you've enjoyed. Give a compliment. Share a joke.

Perform a magic show online – Get your best tricks ready to wow your audience.

Share a stress buster with a friend – These can be found on Save the Children site..

<https://www.savethechildren.org/us/charity-stories/easy-at-home-relaxation-activities-to-help-calm-kids>

Lego Time – Create or instruct one another in making new creations. Maybe play as a blind game and see if your instructions are good enough for your partner to follow. Start with the same bricks and see how different your models are at the end.

Battleship Games – Play this popular game either with the game or with pen and paper.

Dance off – Who's got the moves. Play a song and let the rest happen. Enjoy.

Charades – Let's see what we can perform for one another.

Bingo game with friends – This could be with popular themes, with numbers or with languages.

Interview time – Grab a microphone and get your questions ready its time to be curious and ask great questions and learn more about each other.

Hold a fashion show – You could theme this and have some music playing for this and then score the best outfit.

Co-write a story with your bestie – Once Upon a Time...

Play Headbanz – What are you? Can you guess with great questions?

Play I spy – I spy with my little eye...

Put on a Pet talent show – What talent does your pet have?

Play musical instruments and put on a concert or start a band – It's your time to create a band with your friends musical talents

Draw each other's portrait- Look closely and sit still and enjoy observing each other like you haven't before and then the big reveal.

Dress up- themed call- What are you both going to come dress in today for your catch up?

Share a book with a friend – Read a book together, take turns.

Play 'Would you rather' game with a friend – Set each other 8 questions each and see whether you can influence your partners opinions.

Mindfulness colouring – Relax and enjoy each other's company whilst losing yourself in some colouring.

Create a book club – What are you reading? What questions do you want to explore? Would you recommend this book?

