

Summer 1
Year 1

Week	Home Learning	This week's spelling	Parent/carer comment	Peer comment	Teacher comment
Week 1 Due Date: 4th May	English Our new English focus is a book called 'On Sudden Hill' by Linda Sarah. This week we have used our knowledge of the 9 habits and applied them to the characters on the front cover. Can you create your own character and give it some of the 9 habits and explain why? Honest, patient, forgiving, humble, self-controlled, considerate, compassionate, joyful, honest. Challenge: Can you write about some of the qualities that you may want to work on for yourself? Perhaps you would like to be more patient or more joyful in the mornings.	friend, school, put, push, pull, full, garden, girl
Week 2 Due Date: 11th May	History Use your iPad to research and write about an iconic moment in history for women where they have been treated equally in the workplace. Challenge: Write about a time when a female member of your family had an iconic moment.	Goes, around, town, head, horse, Pulled, love, wanted
Week 3 Due Date: 18th May	Maths This half term we are thinking about fractions. Use your IPAD to take pictures of some food (fruit, pizza etc.) and cut it into halves and quarters, upload these images onto the 'home-learning' folder on Showbie. Challenge: Can you think of your own fractions other than a half or a quarter?	After, jumped, better, worked, air, care, house, come
Week 4 Due Date: 25th May	Art Inspired by artist Alberto Giacometti, can you design and create a sculpture using tinfoil or another material you have at home? Challenge: write about how you made your sculpture, what materials did you use and why?	Along, think, play, again, queen, tea, please, baby
Week 5 See Holiday Homework Grid.					