

Daily home reading with an adult, of at least 10 minutes, is proven to have an impact on children's development and attainment within school.

Week	Home Learning	Maths Focus work	This week's spellings	Parent/student comment	Peer comment	Teacher comment
Week 1 WC 31 st October	English This half term we will be reading and focussing our writing on the book 'The Way Back Home' by Oliver Jeffers. To re-cap on our previous learning, create an illustration that is in the same style of Oliver Jeffers and write a short story about you character. Challenge: Can you use some interesting adjectives and verbs?	Learn the number bonds within 10. E.g. 6 and 4 make 10.	a, of, was, you, me, so
Week 2 WC 7 th November	Science Draw and label the body parts of a vertebrate animal e.g. a crocodile, an elephant, a monkey, a fish, a shark. Challenge: Write a sentence about what you have drawn i.e. "My elephant is a mammal. It has a trunk and four legs."	Learn the number bonds within 9. E.g. 4 and 5 make 9.	the, said, is, your, she, by, one
Week 3 WC 14 th November	Maths Go on a shape hunt. How many 2D and 3D shapes can you find at home? At the park? At the supermarket? Challenge: Compare 2 2D shapes. How are they the same/different?	Learn the number bonds within 8	do, says, his, they, we, my, put
Week 4 WC 21 st November	English Our new book and writing will be focused on 'Man On The Moon' by Simon Bartram. Write a few sentences about what it would be like to live on the moon. Think about who you would take with you, what you would pack and perhaps how you would get there. Challenge: Can you use some interesting adjectives and verbs?	Learn the number bonds within 7	to, are, has, be, no, here, our
Week 5 WC 29 th November	History Create a fact file about Nelson Mandela. Include as many facts as you can about why he is a significant person in history. Make it as creative as you can. Challenge: Can you draw a portrait of Nelson Mandela?	Learn the number bonds within 6	today, were, I, he, go, there
Week 6 WC 6 th December	Geography Choose one of the 7 continents of the world. Find out what kind of animals live in the countries there. Can you find out an interesting fact about the continent you have chosen? Challenge: Can you group the animals into mammals, birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians?	Learn the number bonds within 5	where, once, push, love, ask, pull
Week 7 WC 13 th December (Holiday Homework)	Phonics Individual phonics homework will be given to work on any areas that each individual needs development. Continue to use Sum dog and Ed-shed over the holidays.	Recap number bonds to 10.	come, friend, full, some school, house			