Nye

Martha

Stars of the week:

Nye for thoroughly enjoying his extra maths challenges!

Martha for coming into nursery every day with a beautiful smile!

Next weeks topic: Love and Respect

We will talk about the people we love and who love us. We will think about lovely ways to say 'I love you' with cards, letters, pictures, photos, drawing hearts, making hand hearts, blowing a kiss, sending valentines cards and writing XX etc.

We will also talk about respect and what it means to show respect for other's points of view, opinions, decisions, feelings etc.

This week's sound is....

Notices....

- It was lovely to speak to so many of you on parent's evening and I look forward to the second session next week.
- Half term holiday begins Monday 14th Feb
- Please can you donate any spare/old socks, we have completely run out and have had to send children home sock-less after being changed!

Things to do at home...

Ask your child who they love, and how loving your family makes you feel

Re-enforce the meaning of respect and how to show respect others, possessions, furniture, opinions etc.

Please practice zipping up and putting on coats independently
