Stars of the week

Milly for saying a lovely sentence!

Resa for smiling and joining in on the carpet!

- Happy New year to you all!
- Please give your children mittens to wear it is very cold in the playground and several children don't have any
- Next week we will be welcoming eight new children to nursery
- We are now collecting this term's £15 contribution towards resources and experiences, as well as purchasing the usual resources we are also hoping to be able to cover the cost of a visit from some farm animals later this term
- This will be the last paper newsletter, from next week the newsletter will be posted on SeeSaw, as well as saving resources, hopefully this will be

Next week's Topic: Welcoming the newbies 😊

We will talk about empathy, sharing, turn taking, nursery rules etc.

We will get to know the new children and understand that we are now the big children in nursery and that we will show the new children what independent and responsible Ducklings we all are!

Having concentrated on distinguishing sounds and rhyme last term, we are now moving on to learning individual letters and sounds. Next weeks letter/sound is Ss

Things to do at home...

- Revisit name writing with correct pencil grip and letter formation
- Accurately count groups of objects by tapping or moving each object as you say a number name to avoid getting muddled
- Find objects beginning with the letter/sound S
- Sound out simple CVC words (d-o-g, l-o-g, h-a-t, c-a-t, s-u-n, f-u-n etc)
